

United Way Day 2022
Barbour County, West Virginia
County Commission Proclamation

WHEREAS, Barbour County wishes each of its citizens a thriving and sustainable life, and WHEREAS, it takes every part of the community – individuals, businesses, and organizations – to make things happen, create change, and advance the common good to support a quality life for everyone, and
WHEREAS, the Tygart Valley United Way mobilizes the power of individuals and communities through the building blocks of education, health, and financial stability, and WHEREAS, last year, local citizens generously contributed more than $620,000 to the Tygart Valley United Way, thereby investing in stronger communities, and WHEREAS, 32 regional nonprofit partners put those dollars to use throughout 46 programs to provide food, shelter, healthcare, emergency assistance, and more, and WHEREAS, crucial services were provided to 30,661 members of our community last year, and WHEREAS, our community is a better place when more people live with hope and opportunity.
THEREFORE, we the County Commissioners of Barbour County, West Virginia do hereby proclaim Thursday, October 27, 2022, UNITED WAY DAY throughout Barbour County and encourage all businesses and community members to support their local Tygart Valley United Way through time, talent, and treasure this season.

Witnessed this 3rd day of October, 2022.
