Work Session
American Rescue Plan Funding

1. Introduction – Susie Cvechko

The purpose of holding this work session is to discuss the application process for applying toward the County Commission's American Rescue Plan funds. We are utilizing the program that the State Auditor's office developed to manage the applications. This will give a consistent process for application submissions.

You should have received a copy of the policy and procedures and the application. Applications must be submitted online. No paper copies will be received. Shana will go over this process.

2. Shana to go over application process

3. Open Discussion

4. Adjourn
